

THANKGIVINGS DAY DINNER—AND THE VALUE OF PURITY

The Value of Purity

The joy of eating comes not alone from the pleasurable sensation of taste, but from that sensation and the consciousness that the food eaten is beyond a doubt pure, wholesome and nutritious.

These are days in which it is most important that the watch-word in foods be "Purity." The difficulties of housekeeping now, more than ever, require foods of convenience as well as of nourishment and economy.

Here are products of the finest quality, such as no housewife can prepare. They are, in fact, the finest foods that science, money and conscience can produce. Here, indeed is the value of Purity. Here, too, the virtue of economy.

THE PEOPLES EXCHANGE

Has cause to be thankful this year because the past few months has demonstrated that the people of Tulsa are lovers of the great American principle FREEDOM. The Peoples Exchange has fought for this principle and has won—due to the loyal support of our many patrons and to each and every one of these, this store gives thanks.
